

5.4.1 Alumni Engagement

1. The Institute has an established Alumni Association that is fully operational and functioning. It was registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, and has registration number Maha-616/19, dated October 17, 2019.
2. The Alumni Association is independent of the Institute and has its separate funds, proper accounts along with PAN number are maintained.
3. The Alumni Association's core committee consists of alumni members. Each department faculty member of the Institute communicates with them to keep them up to date on alumni information and status.
4. The Institute honours its distinguished alumni in special programmes and on the Annual Day with theme of “Our Alumni as Our Celebrity”.
5. The Institute's IQAC is comprised of one alumni representative, whose recommendations and encouragement have enhanced the IQAC’s operations.
6. The Institute has consistently anticipated a fruitful and significant relationship with its alumni. All significant institute programs and events are open to alumni. The Institute's departments almost all have alumni gatherings in an effort to maintain this atmosphere. Departments arrange interactive sessions with alumni, who offer advice to current students on future choices related to academic pursuits and career options.
7. The placing of the alumni in the country and abroad, and in the industry help to significantly improve the perception about the Institute. The alumni, who are well-placed in the industry are able to use their network to facilitate opportunities for the students in career advancement and placements.
8. The main objective of the Alumni Association is to reach out to the alumni to create and strengthen the bond between alumni and the institute.
